Introducing...

AS Level English Language and Literature (EMC) (from September 2015)

OCR's English Language and Literature (EMC) is a unique and distinctive qualification produced with the English and Media Centre. Together, the English teams at OCR and EMC have developed a new AS level that engages students in the study of English and prepares them for further study. At AS level, English students explore the richness of language and literature and cultivate their own critical responses. This AS Level English Language and Literature specification enables depth and breadth of study, with flexible content that supports independence, wide reading and creativity.

AS Level English Language and Literature (EMC) presents clear continuity from GCSE English and GCSE English Literature with the study of literary and non-fiction written and spoken texts. The course also enables students to develop their creativity and expertise by producing their own original non-fiction writing. Students explore texts of greater variety and challenge than those encountered at GCSE and learn to apply linguistic and literary concepts and methods to their analysis of texts.

Our aim is to provide a clear and coherent course with concepts and methods clearly defined. We have made the most of the creative elements of the course and encourage students to 'read as a writer, and write as a reader'. The wide range of text choices provides great flexibility within a supportive structure. This AS level is fully co-teachable with A Level English Language and Literature (EMC).

Teaching and learning resources

We recognise that the introduction of a new specification can bring challenges for implementation and teaching. Our aim is to help you at every stage and we're working hard to provide a practical package of support in close consultation with teachers and other experts, so we can help you to make the change.

Designed to support progression for all

Our resources are designed to provide you with a range of teaching activities and suggestions so you can select the best approach for your particular students. You are the experts on how your students learn and our aim is to support you in the best way we can.

We want to...

- Support you with a body of knowledge that grows throughout the lifetime of the specification
- Provide you with a range of suggestions so you can select the best activity, approach or context for your particular students
- Make it easier for you to explore and interact with our resource materials, in particular to develop your own schemes of work
- Create an ongoing conversation so we can develop materials that work for you.

Plenty of useful resources

You'll have four main types of subject-specific teaching and learning resources at your fingertips:

- Delivery Guides
- Transition Guides
- Topic Exploration Packs
- Lesson Elements.

Along with subject-specific resources, you'll also have access to a selection of generic resources that focus on skills development and professional guidance for teachers.

Skills Guides – we've produced a set of Skills Guides that are not specific to English Language and Literature (EMC), but each covers a topic that could be relevant to a range of qualifications – for example, communication, legislation and research. Download the guides at ocr.org.uk/skillsguides

Active Results – a free online results analysis service to help you review the performance of individual students or your whole school. It provides access to detailed results data, enabling more comprehensive analysis of results in order to give you a more accurate measurement of the achievements of your centre and individual students. For more details refer to ocr.org.uk/activeresults

Professional Development

Take advantage of our improved Professional Development Programme, designed with you in mind. Whether you want to look at our new digital training or search for training materials, you can find what you're looking for all in one place at the CPD Hub.

An introduction to the new specifications

We'll be running events to help you get to grips with our AS Level English Language and Literature (EMC) qualification.

These events are designed to help prepare you for first teaching and to support your delivery at every stage.

Watch out for details at cpdhub.ocr.org.uk

To receive the latest information about the training we'll be offering, please register for AS level email updates at ocr.org.uk/updates

1 Why choose an OCR AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC)?

1a. Why choose an OCR qualification?

Choose OCR and you have the reassurance that you're working with one of the UK's leading exam boards. Our new AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC) course has been developed in consultation with teachers, employers and Higher Education to provide students with a qualification that is relevant to them and meets their needs.

We're part of the Cambridge Assessment Group, Europe's largest assessment agency and a department of the University of Cambridge. Cambridge Assessment plays a leading role in developing and delivering assessments throughout the world, operating in over 150 countries.

We work with a range of education providers, including schools, colleges, workplaces and other institutions in both the public and private sectors. Over 13,000 centres choose our A levels, GCSEs and vocational qualifications including Cambridge Nationals and Cambridge Technicals.

Our Specifications

We believe in developing specifications that help you bring the subject to life and inspire your students to achieve more.

We've created teacher-friendly specifications based on extensive research and engagement with the teaching community. They're designed to be straightforward and accessible so that you can tailor the delivery of the course to suit your needs. We aim to encourage learners to become responsible for their own learning, confident in discussing ideas, innovative and engaged.

We provide a range of support services designed to help you at every stage, from preparation through to the delivery of our specifications. This includes:

- A wide range of high-quality creative resources including:
  - Delivery Guides
  - Transition Guides
  - Topic Exploration Packs
  - Lesson Elements
  - ...and much more.
- Access to Subject Advisors to support you through the transition and throughout the lifetimes of the specifications.
- CPD/Training for teachers to introduce the qualifications and prepare you for first teaching.
- Active Results – our free results analysis service to help you review the performance of individual students or whole schools.

All AS level qualifications offered by OCR are accredited by Ofqual, the Regulator for qualifications offered in England. The accreditation number for OCR AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC) is (QN: 601/4705/2).

1b. Why choose an OCR AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC)?

The OCR AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC) is designed to offer both learners and teachers a broad range of texts to engage with, including the study of non-fiction spoken and written texts, novels and poetry, as well as opportunities for original writing. Text choices offer a fresh and stimulating approach to learning, enabling learners to develop the analytical tools to explore language choices in detail and to become confident and insightful readers.

This specification contains components that will be familiar to teachers of Language and Literature AS Level. However, it also has some new features and has been devised by OCR and the English and Media Centre (EMC) to take the qualification into a new era and to offer a programme of study that is both imaginative and coherent.

Aims and learning outcomes

The AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC) will encourage learners to develop their interest in, and enjoyment of, English as they:

- develop and apply their knowledge of literary analysis and evaluation
- develop and apply their understanding of the concepts and methods appropriate for the analysis and study of language
- use linguistic and literary approaches in their reading and interpretation of texts, showing how the two disciplines can relate to each other
- engage creatively and critically with a wide range of texts
- explore the ways in which texts relate to each other and the contexts in which they are produced and received
- develop their skills as producers and interpreters of language.

1c. What are the key features of this specification?

This qualification has the following key features:

- developed with the English and Media Centre, an award-winning educational charity, highly regarded by the English teaching community
- combining our expertise at OCR with EMC's has enabled us to develop an innovative and distinctive new qualification
- a coherent approach to integrating language and literature that draws on the discipline of stylistics and other literary and linguistic practices. This gives learners a clear idea of what's expected and is recognisable within the disciplines of English Literature and English Language in universities
- an emphasis on original writing, drawing on the study of texts throughout the course, with well-supported tasks
- a wide-ranging anthology of non-fiction texts, including spoken language for public audiences and digital texts, spanning different contexts and time periods, to form a key element in the teaching of linguistic approaches
- an appealing and interesting selection of set texts, carefully chosen for the requirements of each paper
- a very wide range of texts drawn from literary and non-fiction genres. The literary texts offer a rich and varied set of choices from canonical authors such as William Blake and Charlotte Brontë, to 21st century writers, such as poet Jacob Sam-La Rose and novelist Jhumpa Lahiri. Non-fiction includes satire, transcripts and graphic non-fiction.

2 The specification overview

2a. Overview of AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC) (H074)

Learners must complete all components (01 and 02) to be awarded the AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC).

Content Overview	Assessment Overview
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Component 01 focuses on an OCR (EMC) anthology of spoken and written texts across different time periods and contexts.</li><li>Component 02 focuses on exploring the nature of narrative in one prose fiction text from a choice of six and exploring the poet's use of language and techniques in one poetry text from a choice of six.</li></ul>	Non-fiction written and spoken texts (01)* Closed text 50 marks Written paper 1 hour 30 minutes	50% of total AS level
	The language of literary texts (02)* Closed text 50 marks Written paper 1 hour 30 minutes	50% of total AS level

* Indicates synoptic assessment

2b. Content of AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC) (H074)

AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC) develops learners' ability to apply and integrate linguistic and literary approaches. Learners develop techniques of analysis, evaluation and production of texts.

Learners study a wide range of spoken and written texts from different times including three substantial texts, which include prose, poetry and non-literary texts.

The OCR AS Level in Language and Literature (EMC) requires learners to show knowledge and understanding of:

- how language choices shape meanings in texts
- ways in which texts are interpreted by different readers or listeners
- ways in which texts relate to each other and to the contexts in which they are produced and received

- how linguistic and literary approaches can inform interpretations of texts
- the significance of contextual factors in the production and reception of texts
- how to apply linguistic and literary methodologies and concepts to inform responses to and interpretations of texts.

Learners are required to show awareness of the different language levels, drawn from:

- phonetics, phonology and prosodics
- lexis and semantics
- grammar including morphology
- pragmatics
- discourse.

2c. Content of Non-fiction written and spoken texts (Component 01)

Non-fiction written and spoken texts (Component 01) focuses on an OCR (EMC) anthology of 20 spoken and written texts across different time periods, types of text and contexts. Some of the spoken texts in the anthology will be spontaneous or semi-spontaneous talk but will be confined to texts that are for a public audience. Texts in the anthology will be refreshed after three years. Texts in the anthology will be refreshed after three years and centres will be notified in advance. A balance of spoken and written, historical and contemporary texts will be maintained. The anthology will be available to download from the OCR Interchange website.

2c. Content of The language of literary texts (Component 02)

The language of literary texts (Component 02) is split into two parts. Section A focuses on one prose text from a choice of six (see below and Appendix 5c). Section B focuses on one poetry text from a choice of six with 15 poems identified for study in each text (see below and Appendix 5c).

Section A requires learners to write a close analysis of narrative techniques in the set extract and place it in the context of the novel as a whole. Section B draws on the discipline of stylistics, to provide a helpful structure for the integrated study of linguistic and literary approaches to poetry.

The set texts will be reviewed after three years and may be subject to change. Each set text will remain on the list for the lifetime of the qualification unless the review process identifies a necessary change. If a text is to be removed from the list and replaced with another text, centres will be notified a year in advance.

2d. Prior knowledge, learning and progression

Learners in England who are beginning an AS level course are likely to have followed a Key Stage 4 programme of study.

This course will enable learners to progress to the full A Level Language or Literature or directly to employment. There are a number of English specifications at OCR. Find out more at:

www.ocr.org.uk.

3 Assessment of OCR AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC)

3a. Forms of assessment

The assessment of OCR AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC) is split into two externally assessed components.

Non-fiction written and spoken texts (Component 01)

Component 01 is a closed text, 1 hour and 30 minute written examination worth 50% of the qualification. This component has two sections.

Section A, Reading spoken and written non-fiction, makes up 30% of the total AS level marks. Learners answer one question comparing two texts or extracts from the OCR (EMC) anthology. The texts or extracts are printed in the exam paper. Learners are assessed on: AO1, AO2, AO3 and AO4.

Section B, Writing non-fiction, makes up 20% of the total AS level marks. Learners answer one question from a choice of three writing tasks. Learners are assessed on AO3 and AO5.

The language of literary texts (Component 02)

Component 02 is a closed text, 1 hour and 30 minute written examination worth 50% of the qualification. This component has two sections.

Section A, The language of prose, makes up 25% of the total AS level marks. Learners answer one question on one prose fiction text. An extract from each text will be printed in the exam paper. Learners are assessed on AO1, AO2 and AO3.

Section B, The language of poetry, makes up 25% of the total AS level marks. Learners answer one question, comparing two poems from their collection of poetry. Both poems will be printed in the exam paper. Learners are assessed on AO1, AO2, AO3 and AO4.

3b. Assessment objectives (AO)

There are five assessment objectives in the OCR AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC) qualification. These are detailed in the table below. Learners are expected to demonstrate their ability to:

	Assessment Objective
AO1	Apply concepts and methods from integrated linguistic and literary study as appropriate, using associated terminology and coherent written expression.
AO2	Analyse ways in which meanings are shaped in texts.
AO3	Demonstrate understanding of the significance and influence of the contexts in which texts are produced and received.
AO4	Explore connections across texts, informed by linguistic and literary concepts and methods.
AO5	Demonstrate expertise and creativity in the use of English to communicate in different ways.

AO weightings in OCR AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC)

The relationship between the assessment objectives and the components is shown in the following table:

Component	% of AS level
	AO1	AO2	AO3	AO4	AO5	Total
Non-fiction written and spoken texts (H074/01)	8%	7%	13%	7%	15%	50%
The language of literary texts (H074/02)	14%	20%	8%	8%	0%	50%
Total	22%	27%	21%	15%	15%	100%

3c. Total qualification time

Total qualification time (TQT) is the total amount of time, in hours, expected to be spent by a learner to achieve a qualification. It includes both guided learning hours and hours spent in preparation, study, and assessment. The total qualification time for AS English Language and Literature (EMC) is 180 hours. The total guided learning time is 180 hours.

3d. Qualification availability outside of England

This qualification is available in England. For Wales and Northern Ireland please check the Qualifications in Wales Portal (QIW) or the Northern Ireland Department of Education Performance Measures /

Northern Ireland Entitlement Framework Qualifications Accreditation Number (NIEFQAN) list to see current availability.

3e. Language

This qualification is available in English only. All assessment materials are available in English only and all candidate work must be in English.

3f. Assessment availability

There will be one examination series available each year in June to all learners.

This specification will be certificated from the June 2016 examination series onwards.

All examined components must be taken in the same examination series at the end of the course.

3g. Retaking the qualification

Learners can retake the qualification as many times as they wish. They retake both components of the qualification.

3h. Assessment of extended responses

The assessment materials for this qualification provide learners with the opportunity to demonstrate their ability to construct and develop a sustained and coherent line of reasoning and marks for extended responses are integrated into the marking criteria

3i. Synoptic assessment

Synoptic assessment involves the drawing together of knowledge, skills and understanding of different elements of the AS level course.

learners apply their knowledge of literary and linguistic concepts and methods as appropriate in a range of contexts. Learners develop their skills as interpreters and producers of texts, synthesising their knowledge and understanding of how meanings are shaped in texts.

Synoptic assessment is embedded throughout the AS Level in Language and Literature (EMC) specification as

3j. Calculating qualification results

A learner's overall qualification grade for AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC) will be calculated by adding together their marks from the two components taken to give their total weighted mark.

This mark will then be compared to the qualification level grade boundaries for the relevant exam series to determine the learner's overall qualification grade.

4 Admin: what you need to know

The information in this section is designed to give an overview of the processes involved in administering this qualification so that you can speak to your exams officer. All of the following processes require you to submit something to OCR by a specific deadline.

More information about the processes and deadlines involved at each stage of the assessment cycle can be found in the Administration area of the OCR website.

OCR's Admin overview is available on the OCR website at www.ocr.org.uk/administration.

4a. Pre-assessment

Estimated entries

Estimated entries are your best projection of the number of learners who will be entered for a qualification in a particular series.

Estimated entries should be submitted to OCR by the specified deadline. They are free and do not commit your centre in any way.

Final entries

Final entries provide OCR with detailed data for each learner, showing each assessment to be taken. It is essential that you use the correct entry code, considering the relevant entry rules. Final entries must be submitted to OCR by the published deadlines or late entry fees will apply.

All learners taking AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC) must be entered for H074.

Entry code	Title	Component code	Component title	Assessment type
H074	English Language and Literature (EMC)	01	Non-fiction written and spoken texts	External Assessment
		02	The language of literary texts	External Assessment

Collecting evidence of student performance to ensure resilience in the qualifications system

Regulators have published guidance on collecting evidence of student performance as part of long-term contingency arrangements to improve the resilience of the qualifications system. You should review and consider this guidance when delivering this qualification to students at your centre.

For more detailed information on collecting evidence of student performance please visit our website at: <https://www.ocr.org.uk/administration/general-qualifications/assessment/>.

4b. Accessibility and special consideration

Reasonable adjustments and access arrangements allow learners with special educational needs, disabilities or temporary injuries to access the assessment and show what they know and can do, without changing the demands of the assessment. Applications for these should be made before the examination series. Detailed information about eligibility for access arrangements can be found in the JCQ publication Access Arrangements and Reasonable Adjustments.

Special consideration is a post-assessment adjustment to marks or grades to reflect temporary injury, illness or other indisposition at the time the assessment was taken.

Detailed information about eligibility for special consideration can be found in the JCQ publication A guide to the special consideration process.

4c. External assessment arrangements

Regulations governing examination arrangements are contained in the JCQ Instructions for conducting examinations.

Head of Centre Annual Declaration

The Head of Centre is required to provide a declaration to the JCQ as part of the annual NCN update, conducted in the autumn term, to confirm that the centre is meeting all of the requirements detailed in the specification.

Any failure by a centre to provide the Head of Centre Annual Declaration will result in your centre status being suspended and could lead to the withdrawal of our approval for you to operate as a centre.

Private candidates

Private candidates may enter for OCR assessments.

A private candidate is someone who pursues a course of study independently but takes an examination or assessment at an approved examination centre. A private candidate may be a part-time student, someone taking a distance learning course, or someone being tutored privately. They must be based in the UK.

Private candidates need to contact OCR approved centres to establish whether they are prepared to host them as a private candidate. The centre may charge for this facility and OCR recommends that the arrangement is made early in the course.

Further guidance for private candidates may be found on the OCR website: <http://www.ocr.org.uk>

4d. Results and certificates

Grade scale

AS level qualifications are graded on the scale: A, B, C, D, E, where A is the highest. Learners who fail to reach the minimum standard for E will be Unclassified (U).

Only subjects in which grades A to E are attained will be recorded on certificates.

Results

Results are released to centres and learners for information and to allow any queries to be resolved before certificates are issued.

Centres will have access to the following results information for each learner:

- the grade for the qualification
- the raw mark for each component
- the total weighted mark for the qualification.

The following supporting information will be available:

- raw mark grade boundaries for each component
- weighted mark grade boundaries for each entry option.

Until certificates are issued, results are deemed to be provisional and may be subject to amendment.

A learner's final results will be recorded on an OCR certificate. The qualification title will be shown on the certificate as 'OCR Level 3 Advanced Subsidiary in English Language and Literature (EMC)'.

4e. Post-results services

A number of post-results services are available:

- Review of results – If you are not happy with the outcome of a learner's results, centres may request a review of marking.
- Missing and incomplete results – This service should be used if an individual subject result for a learner is missing, or the learner has been omitted entirely from the results supplied.

- Access to scripts – Centres can request access to marked scripts.

4f. Malpractice

Any breach of the regulations for the conduct of examinations and coursework may constitute malpractice (which includes maladministration) and must be reported to OCR as soon as it is detected.

Detailed information on malpractice can be found in the JCQ publication Suspected Malpractice in Examinations and Assessments: Policies and Procedures.

5 Appendices

5a. Overlap with other qualifications

There is some overlap between the content of this specification and that of specifications in AS Level English Language and AS Level English Literature. Learners who enter for this AS Level in English Language and Literature (EMC) specification may not also enter for any other A level specification with the certification title English Language or English Literature in the same examination series.

5b. Avoidance of bias

The AS level qualification and subject criteria have been reviewed in order to identify any feature which could disadvantage learners who share a protected

Characteristic as defined by the Equality Act 2010. All reasonable steps have been taken to minimise any such disadvantage.
