Cambridge Technicals (2016 suite)

The entry codes and rules of combination for Cambridge Technicals (2016 suite) qualifications are provided within this section. Centres must adhere to the JCQ General Regulations and the Instructions for Conducting Examinations. The key to the form of assessment is as follows:

- E = Externally assessed timetabled paper-based exam
- E (CBT) = Externally assessed timetabled computer-based test
- I = Internally assessed and externally moderated units

The external assessments are provided in January and June series. The first examination series for each of the new Cambridge Technicals (2016 suite) is provided on the OCR website.

Depending on the optional units chosen, it is possible for learners to achieve more guided learning hours (GLH) than are needed for the qualification as all units within a qualification may not have the same GLH. Where this happens, in order to calculate the overall qualification grade, we remove the 'surplus' GLH from the optional unit with the weakest grade. This has no effect on the unit achievement.

Re-entry codes

For learners who have failed the same externally assessed unit twice, the qualification can no longer be achieved under the original entry. In these circumstances, a re-entry will be required. To do this, when making the entry via interchange please select the 'Re-entry' radio button or use the entry code ending in '0R' if entering via EDI. Any previously achieved units will be carried forward from the original entry.
