Specifications are updated over time. Whilst every effort is made to check all documents, there may be contradictions between published resources and the specification, therefore please use the information on the latest specification at all times. Where changes are made to specifications these will be indicated within the document, there will be a new version number indicated, and a summary of the changes. If you do notice a discrepancy between the specification and a resource please contact us at: resources.feedback@ocr.org.uk

We will inform centres about changes to specifications. We will also publish changes on our website. The latest version of our specifications will always be those on our website (ocr.org.uk) and these may differ from printed versions.

Support and Guidance

Introducing a new specification brings challenges for implementation and teaching, but it also opens up new opportunities. Our aim is to help you at every stage. We are working hard with teachers and other experts to bring you a package of practical support, resources and training.

Subject Advisors
OCR Subject Advisors provide information and support to centres including specification and non-exam assessment advice, updates on resource developments and a range of training opportunities.

Our Subject Advisors work with subject communities through a range of networks to ensure the sharing of ideas and expertise supporting teachers and students alike. They work with developers to help produce our specifications and the resources needed to support these qualifications during their development.

You can contact our Classics Subject Advisors for specialist advice, guidance and support:

@OCR_Classics

Teaching and learning resources
Our resources are designed to provide you with a range of teaching activities and suggestions that enable you to select the best activity, approach or context to support your teaching style and your particular students. The resources are a body of knowledge that will grow throughout the lifetime of the specification, they include:

- Delivery Guides
- Transition Guides
- Topic Exploration Packs
- Lesson Elements.

We also work with a number of leading publishers who publish textbooks and resources for our specifications. For more information on our publishing partners and their resources visit: ocr.org.uk/publishing-partners

Professional development
Our improved Professional Development Programme fulfils a range of needs through course selection, preparation for teaching, delivery and assessment. Whether you want to come to events, look at our new digital training or search for training materials, you can find what you’re looking for all in one place at the CPD Hub: cpdhub.ocr.org.uk

An introduction to new specifications
We run training events throughout the academic year that are designed to help prepare you for first teaching and support every stage of your delivery of the new qualifications.

1 Why choose an OCR A Level in Latin?

1a. Why choose an OCR qualification?

Choose OCR and you’ve got the reassurance that you’re working with one of the UK’s leading exam boards. Our new A Level in Latin has been developed in consultation with teachers, employers and Higher Education to provide learners with a qualification that’s relevant to them and meets their needs.

We’re part of the Cambridge Assessment Group, Europe’s largest assessment agency and a department of the University of Cambridge. Cambridge Assessment plays a leading role in developing and delivering assessments throughout the world, operating in over 150 countries.

We work with a range of education providers, including schools, colleges, workplaces and other institutions in both the public and private sectors. Over 13,000 centres choose our A Levels, GCSEs and vocational qualifications including Cambridge Nationals and Cambridge Technicals.

Our Specifications

We believe in developing specifications that help you bring the subject to life and inspire your students to achieve more.

We’ve created teacher-friendly specifications based on extensive research and engagement with the teaching community. They’re designed to be straightforward and accessible so that you can tailor the delivery of the course to suit your needs. We aim to encourage learners to become responsible for their own learning, confident in discussing ideas, innovative and engaged.

We provide a range of support services designed to help you at every stage, from preparation through to the delivery of our specifications. This includes:

• A wide range of high-quality creative resources including:
  o Delivery Guides
  o Transition Guides
  o Topic Exploration Packs
  o Lesson Elements
  o ... and much more.

• Access to Subject Advisors to support you through the transition and throughout the lifetime of the specifications.

• CPD/Training for teachers including events to introduce the qualifications and prepare you for first teaching.

• Active Results – our free results analysis service to help you review the performance of individual learners or whole schools.

All A Level qualifications offered by OCR are accredited by Ofqual, the Regulator for qualifications offered in England. The accreditation number for OCR’s A Level in Latin is QN601/8254/4.
1b. Why choose an OCR A Level in Latin?

OCR’s A Level in Latin has been designed to help learners develop their understanding of the Latin language and the related ancient literature, values and society.

We have updated the structure of the A Level to reflect the new linear nature of the qualification. This has allowed us to create separate components assessing language and literature. We have designed this qualification with teachers and learners in mind, having consulted extensively across the United Kingdom. We have used the feedback we have received to help shape how we have structured the set texts which gives teachers and learners a greater choice in the texts they can study. The specification also lists the interesting and engaging set texts which will be assessed for the first 6 years of the specification to give teachers certainty from the outset about what texts will be studied in the future.

We want to ensure that OCR’s A Level in Latin engages learners, develops a desire within them to continue learning Latin and helps develop a lifelong enthusiasm for the Classical world.

Aims and learning outcomes

OCR’s A Level in Latin will enable learners to:

- develop an appropriate level of competence in the language studied
- acquire the language skills which enable learners to read literary texts, both prose and verse, in the original language
- develop an interest in, and enthusiasm for, the literary, historical and cultural features of the ancient world
- acquire the literary skills which enable learners to read ancient literature, both prose and verse, in its original language with appropriate attention to literary techniques, styles and genres
- apply analytical and evaluative skills at an appropriate level which show direct engagement with original texts in the ancient language
- make an informed personal response to the material studied
- begin to develop a sensitive and analytical approach to language generally
- A Level specifications must also encourage learners to develop research and analytical skills that will empower them to become independent learners.
1c. What are the key features of this specification?

The key features of OCR’s A Level in Latin for you and your learners are:

- a choice of set texts to study, giving the opportunity to create an appropriate and engaging course for learners
- the opportunity to be inspired, motivated and challenged by reading widely across a range of set texts
- the opportunity to gain a deeper understanding of the life and culture of the ancient world through the literature studied
- the encouragement to develop and apply critical analytical skills, which will help learners in their future study
- the opportunity to develop linguistic skills which will help both in the study and application of English and other languages
- the separation of the assessment of unseen language and set texts in different question papers
- the first year of this course is co-teachable with our AS Level in Latin specification.
- the chance to develop the language and literature skills needed to progress to studying Classics at undergraduate level.

Content Overview

Learners build their knowledge of vocabulary and linguistic structures through reading and studying prose and verse texts in Latin. Learners study texts written by a range of prose authors and the verse unseen author to develop linguistic competence.

Learners study two Latin Prose Literature set texts in depth. Learners also study additional literature in translation in order to understand the context from which the set texts have been taken.

Learners study two Latin Verse Literature set texts in depth. Learners also study additional literature in translation in order to understand the context from which the set texts have been taken.

2b. Content of A Level in Latin (H443)

The OCR A Level in Latin will build on the knowledge, understanding and skills specified for GCSE (9–1), although prior attainment of a GCSE (9–1) qualification in Latin is not a requirement. Learners will be introduced to a greater range of vocabulary through wider reading of original material, more complex examples of syntax and accidence and the in-depth study of prose and verse literature.

There is no defined vocabulary list for the A Level in Latin. Rather, the qualification will require learners to know and build upon words and regular compounds of the words, which are listed in the Defined Vocabulary List for AS Level Latin. This is found on the OCR website (www.ocr.org.uk).

Learners are expected to study a range of authors’ work in order to develop a wider vocabulary and more complex understanding of syntax and accidence. This will enable them to translate unseen passages, and either answer comprehension and grammar questions on an unseen prose passage or translate a passage of English into Latin.

The OCR A Level in Latin will also extend the study of ancient literature in terms of breadth and depth, further developing learners’ ability to critically analyse and evaluate ancient literature. In both the Prose and Verse Literature components, the OCR A Level in Latin will give teachers and learners the option to study one author in greater depth or the works of two different authors. The qualification also requires learners to read additional literature in translation in order to understand the context from which the set texts have been taken.

The set texts for the Literature components (Components 03 and 04) will change every two years. This specification lists the set texts to be studied for the first seven years of assessment of the specification.

The set texts will be reviewed after three years and may be subject to change. Each set text will remain on the list for the lifetime of the qualification, unless the review process identifies a necessary change. If a text is to be removed from the list and replaced with another text, centres will be notified a year in advance.

Over the course of the A Level, learners will have studied the works of at least four different authors in preparation for the Language and Literature examinations.
2c. Content of Unseen Translation (H443/01)

This component is designed to enable learners to demonstrate their linguistic competence in Latin. There is no Defined Vocabulary List for this component. Learners should build on and develop their range of vocabulary through wider reading of texts during the A Level course.

2d. Prior knowledge, learning and progression

The specification builds on the knowledge, understanding and skills specified for GCSE (9–1) Latin, however, prior attainment of a GCSE (9–1) qualification in Latin is not required.

OCR’s A Level in Latin provides a suitable foundation for the study of Latin or other Classics courses in further and higher education. At the same time, the multi-faceted nature of the subject and skills developed whilst studying Latin provide a suitable foundation to study many other subjects including English, History, Modern Foreign Languages, Philosophy and Politics.

The key skills required and developed by the specification also provide opportunities for progression directly into employment.
Assessment of A Level in Latin

3a. Forms of assessment

OCR’s A Level in Latin consists of four components that are all externally assessed.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Component</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Details</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Unseen Translation (Component 01)</td>
<td>Unseen Translation is an externally assessed, written examination testing AO1. It is worth 100 marks, which is 33% of the total marks for the A Level.</td>
<td>In Section A, learners will translate an unseen passage of Latin prose into English. This section is worth 50 marks. In Section B, learners will translate an unseen passage of Latin verse into English. Learners will also be required to scan two lines of verse. This section is worth 50 marks.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Prose Composition or Comprehension (Component 02)</td>
<td>Prose Composition or Comprehension is an externally assessed, written examination testing AO1. It is worth 50 marks, which is 17% of the total marks for the A Level.</td>
<td>In Section A, learners will answer translation, comprehension and grammar questions on an unseen passage of Latin prose. This section is worth 50 marks. In Section B, learners will translate a passage, of at least 100 words in length, into Latin. This section is worth 50 marks.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Prose Literature (Component 03)</td>
<td>Prose Literature is an externally assessed, written examination testing AO2 and AO3. It is worth 75 marks, which is 25% of the total marks for the A Level.</td>
<td>In both Section A and Section B, learners will have to translate a passage of the set text into English, answer comprehension questions and answer a 15-mark question analysing literary style, characterisation, argument and literary meaning. In Section C, learners will write an essay which draws upon material from the Group 2 set text and the material read in translation.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

There are two sections to this component. Learners answer both sections.

There are two sections to this component. Learners answer either Section A or Section B.

In both Section A and Section B, learners will have to translate a passage of the set text into English, answer comprehension questions and answer a 15-mark question analysing literary style, characterisation, argument and literary meaning.
Verse Literature (Component 04)

Verse Literature is an externally assessed, written examination testing AO2 and AO3. It is worth 75 marks, which is 25% of the total marks for the A Level.

There are three sections to this component.

In Section A, learners will answer questions to show their understanding and appreciation of the set text studied from Group 3.

In Section B, learners will answer questions to show their understanding and appreciation of the set text studied from Group 4.

3b. Assessment objectives (AO)

There are three Assessment Objectives in OCR A Level in Latin. These are detailed in the table below.

Learners are expected to:

3c. Assessment availability

There will be one examination series available each year in May / June to all learners. All examined components must be taken in the same examination series at the end of the course. This specification will be certificated from the June 2018 examination series onwards.

3d. Retaking the qualification

Learners can retake the qualification as many times as they wish. They retake all components of the qualification.

3e. Assessment of extended response

The assessment materials for this qualification provide learners with the opportunity to demonstrate their ability to construct and develop a sustained and coherent line of reasoning and marks for extended responses are integrated into the marking criteria.

3f. Synoptic assessment

Synoptic assessment targets the learners’ understanding of the connections between different elements of the subject. It involves the explicit drawing together of knowledge, skills and understanding within different parts of the A Level course. Synoptic assessment encourages the understanding of Latin as a discipline and requires learners to demonstrate understanding of the links between language and literature in their classical contexts.

3g. Calculating qualification results

A learner’s overall qualification grade for A Level in Latin will be calculated by adding together their marks from the four components taken to give their total weighted mark. This mark will then be compared to the qualification level grade boundaries for the relevant exam series to determine the learner’s overall qualification grade.
4 Admin: what you need to know

The information in this section is designed to give an overview of the processes involved in administering this qualification so that you can speak to your exams officer. All of the following processes require you to submit something to OCR by a specific deadline.

More information about the processes and deadlines involved at each stage of the assessment cycle can be found in the Administration area of the OCR website.

OCR’s Admin overview is available on the OCR website at: http://www.ocr.org.uk/administration

4a. Pre-assessment

Estimated entries

Estimated entries are your best projection of the number of learners who will be entered for a qualification in a particular series. Estimated entries should be submitted to OCR by the specified deadline. They are free and do not commit your centre in any way.

Final entries

Final entries provide OCR with detailed data for each learner, showing each assessment to be taken. It is essential that you use the correct entry code, considering the relevant entry rules.

Final entries must be submitted to OCR by the published deadlines or late entry fees will apply. All learners taking an A Level in Latin must be entered for H443.

4b. Special consideration

Special consideration is a post-assessment adjustment to marks or grades to reflect temporary injury, illness or other indisposition at the time the assessment was taken.

Detailed information about eligibility for special consideration can be found in the JCQ publication A guide to the special consideration process.
4c. External assessment arrangements

Regulations governing examination arrangements are contained in the JCQ, Instructions for conducting examinations.

Head of Centre Annual Declaration

The Head of Centre is required to provide a declaration to the JCQ as part of the annual NCN update, conducted in the autumn term, to confirm that the centre is meeting all of the requirements detailed in the specification.

Any failure by a centre to provide the Head of Centre Annual Declaration will result in your centre status being suspended and could lead to the withdrawal of our approval for you to operate as a centre.

Private candidates

Private candidates may enter for OCR assessments.

A private candidate is someone who pursues a course of study independently but takes an examination or assessment at an approved examination centre. A private candidate may be a part-time student, someone taking a distance learning course, or someone being tutored privately. They must be based in the UK.

Private candidates need to contact OCR approved centres to establish whether they are prepared to host them as a private candidate. The centre may charge for this facility and OCR recommends that the arrangement is made early in the course.

Further guidance for private candidates may be found on the OCR website: http://www.ocr.org.uk

4d. Results and certificates

Grade Scale

A Level qualifications are graded on the scale: A*, A, B, C, D, E, where A* is the highest. Learners who fail to reach the minimum standard for E will be Unclassified (U). Only subjects in which grades A* to E are attained will be recorded on certificates.

Results

Results are released to centres and learners for information and to allow any queries to be resolved before certificates are issued.

Centres will have access to the following results information for each learner:

- the grade for the qualification
- the raw mark for each component
- the total weighted mark for the qualification.

The following supporting information will be available:

- raw mark grade boundaries for each component
- weighted mark grade boundaries for the qualification.

Until certificates are issued, results are deemed to be provisional and may be subject to amendment.

A learner’s final results will be recorded on an OCR certificate. The qualification title will be shown on the certificate as ‘OCR Level 3 Advanced GCE in Latin’.
4e. Post-results services

A number of post-results services are available:

- Review of results – If you are not happy with the outcome of a learner’s results, centres may request a review of marking.

- Missing and incomplete results – This service should be used if an individual subject result for a learner is missing, or the learner has been omitted entirely from the results supplied.

- Access to scripts – Centres can request access to marked scripts.

4f. Malpractice

Any breach of the regulations for the conduct of examinations and non-exam assessment work may constitute malpractice (which includes maladministration) and must be reported to OCR as soon as it is detected.

Detailed information on malpractice can be found in the JCQ publication Suspected Malpractice in Examinations and Assessments: Policies and Procedures.
5 Appendices

5a. Overlap with other qualifications

There is no overlap with any other qualifications.

5b. Accessibility

Reasonable adjustments and access arrangements allow learners with special educational needs, disabilities or temporary injuries to access the assessment and show what they know and can do, without changing the demands of the assessment. Applications for these should be made before the examination series. Detailed information about eligibility for access arrangements can be found in the JCQ Access Arrangements and Reasonable Adjustments.

The A Level qualification and subject criteria have been reviewed in order to identify any feature which could disadvantage learners who share a protected characteristic as defined by the Equality Act 2010. All reasonable steps have been taken to minimise any such disadvantage.
5c. Text List

Except where a particular edition is prescribed, centres are free to use any complete edition of the prescribed text as they choose.

Where a passage is printed on the question paper it will be taken from the Bloomsbury text with such modifications as seem appropriate to the examiners.

The set texts for examination in 2018 and 2019 can be found in these editions from Bloomsbury:
