Getting to Cambridge

On arrival at our Shaftesbury Road campus, please use the main entrance to the building you are attending, and report to reception.

By car

Visitor parking is available at our Shaftesbury Road campus. Spaces are limited and need to be booked prior to your visit. Please ask your host to arrange parking for your visit if you need it, and also detail any special requirements you have, for example, if you need an accessible bay.

To visit the Pitt Building or Cambridge University Press Bookshop, use one of the multi-storey car parks (P), or the Park & Ride (P).

By bus/coach and taxi

Inter-city coach services arrive and depart from Drummer Street bus station in the city centre, where bus and taxi (call Panther on 01223 715715) services to our Shaftesbury Road campus are available. Uber and Bolt services are also available in Cambridge. The Shaftesbury Road campus is a 30 minute (1.5 mile) walk from Drummer Street.

The Bookshop and The Pitt Building are a short walk from the bus station.

By rail

There are frequent train services from London King's Cross and Liverpool Street stations. Journey times vary from 50 minutes to one hour 20 minutes. Visit nationalrail.co.uk or phone National Rail on 03457 484950 for information.

The Shaftesbury Road site is a 5 minute taxi ride, or a 15 minute (0.7 mile) walk from the train station.
