SECTION A – The language of reasoning

Answer all the questions.

Read all the documents in the Resource Booklet before you answer the questions.

Question 1 in all parts refers to Document 1 ‘Wearable Computers’.

In your answers to all parts of Question 1, you should use the exact words of the author. You must give only the argument element asked for and include no other material.

1 (a) State one argument given in paragraphs 1–3 of Document 1.

.....
..... [2]

(b) State one counter-assertion given in Document 1 against wearables.

.....
.....
..... [2]

(c) State three argument indicator words used in paragraph 6 of Document 1 and state the argument element each indicates.
E.g. therefore – conclusion.

2 In Document 2, a smartphone research analyst claims:

‘I do think though that society isn’t ready for another smart device with the always-connectedness that this technology implies.’

(a) State the argument element above.

..... [1]

(b) Explain your answer to 2(a) with reference to the text.

.....

3 Question 3 refers to Document 3 ‘Students and smartphones’.

(a) In paragraph 3 of Document 3 the authors claim that when the students were surveyed:

‘Over 92% had an active Facebook account and 81% had an active account on Twitter. Google+ and YouTube were also popular.’

Explain one way in which the use of social media by MIS university students in the US might be representative of student use elsewhere.

(b) Explain one way in which the table within the survey might be weak evidence of how MIS university students use smartphones. You should give a developed answer.

.....
.....
..... [2]

4 (a) In paragraph 4 of Document 1 the author makes a claim about the Filip band:

‘As it has the facility to call up to five stored numbers, it enables children to make quick and easy contact.’

State an assumption that is needed to support this reasoning.

..... [3]

(b) In paragraph 2 of Document 3 the Head of MIS Research claims:

‘This generation of students is of the opinion that they can multi-task, so professors should not be offended by these students using smartphones in the classroom.’

State an assumption that is needed to support this reasoning.

..... [3]

5 Suggest one reason of your own to support the following possible claim:

Wearable technology should not be developed as part of children’s clothing.

You must give only one reason and not add other argument elements.

..... [3]

6 Consider the argument presented in Document 2 by the contributor to a road safety forum.

Explain one weakness in the support that the reasoning gives to the conclusion.

You should look at the argument made by the contributor to a road safety forum. Make one developed point that refers directly to their argument, assessing the link between the reasoning and the conclusion.

SECTION B – Credibility

Answer all questions.

7 Assess the credibility of Document 3 from the MIS staff research team at Alabama State University, USA.

You should make two points.

Each point should identify and use a relevant credibility criterion to assess the credibility of the document. You should support each point with a relevant reference to the text in Document 3.

- 9 (a) Assess the credibility of the following claim made by a security strategist at Symantec in Document 2.

‘One of the most apparently innocent forms of wearable technology, smart fitness bands, will provide an even richer source of data for cybercriminals to exploit.’

Apply three different credibility criteria to explain how these may strengthen or weaken the credibility of this claim.

In your answer you should:

- assess the credibility of this particular claim
- assess what else you need to know to come to each of these three assessments.

END OF QUESTION PAPER

ADDITIONAL ANSWER SPACE

If additional space is required, you should use the following lined page(s). The question number(s) must be clearly shown in the margin(s).
