

Oxford Cambridge and RSA

OCR Level 3 Cambridge Technical Subsidiary Diploma in Business (600/4235/7)

About this qualification

This is an Applied General qualification that is designed for learners aged 16-19 who want to study business where they can learn and be assessed in ways that are practical and relevant to the business industry. It is designed to give learners the transferable knowledge and skills to progress to higher education, an apprenticeship or to enter into employment.

What skills and knowledge will be covered?

Learners will take nine units, made up of three core and six optional units. The core units, The Business Environment, Business Resources, and Introduction to Marketing enable the learner to demonstrate their understanding of the internal business functionality, as well as wider external business contexts.

The optional units cover a wide range of topics to give learners the opportunity to take units that are relevant to specific areas within the business industry. For example, units such as Human Resource Management in Business, Recruitment and Selection in Business, Developing Teams in Business, and Understanding Health and Safety in the Workplace are designed for learners who are interested in Human Resources.

This qualification will also enable learners to develop other desirable skills. Depending on their choice of optional units this could include leadership, planning, motivating others, team work, and analytical research.

Where could this qualification lead to?

1. A higher education course. Learners could:
 - a. choose to undertake a business related degree from options including marketing, human resources, business and economics, or bBusiness management.
 - b. choose from non-business related degree programmes. This qualification has between 60 – 210 UCAS points - depending on the grade awarded – so it would be accepted by universities as meeting requirements for entry to a range of degree programmes.
2. A Business Administration Apprenticeship.
3. It might also provide entry to employment in some business related careers, for example an office administrator or retail assistant.