This is the same government who think they can play God in the lives of people. The same government who detain us without trial, who torture us in their jails and ban those who stand up to speak for justice. Who throw our leaders on Robben Island. This is the government who wants you to go out and vote. You must be crazy to do that!

An extract from a speech by Dr Allan Boesak, one of the leaders of the United Democratic Front (UDF), on the night before the 1984 elections.

Source B

A cartoon published in the Sowetan, a newspaper read by many black South Africans, in October 1990.

Exiles are people who have been forced to live away from their country.

- 5* 'The main reason that Apartheid survived in the 1970s was because of the weakness of the international anti-Apartheid movement.'
How far do you agree?
